

TOOLKIT FOR MEN

MALE COUNSELLING
IN THE CONTEXT OF
INTIMATE PARTNER
VIOLENCE

COUNSELLOR'S WORKBOOK

RutgersWPF

RIEKAANNISA
PUSAT PENGEMBANGAN KEMERDEKAAN
dan BA. PEREMPUAN SIKLIKAL (PUSAT PEREMPUAN)

PROJECT PARTNERS

Women's Crisis Centre
Cahaya Perempuan

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

PREFACE

1 HOW TO USE THE MANUALS

- 1.1 Purpose of the Counsellor's Workbook
- 1.2 How to use the Counsellor's Workbook
- 1.3 Structure of the Counsellor's Workbook

2 WHAT IS THE MALE COUNSELLING PROGRAMME?

- 2.1 Purpose and goals of the Male Counselling Programme
- 2.2 Context for programmes for men to address Intimate Partner Violence
- 2.3 History of the development of the Male Counselling Programme
- 2.4 The context of a women's organisation
 - 2.4.1 Organisational challenges for women's organisations
- 2.5 Intervention models
- 2.6 Criteria for selection of male clients
- 2.7 Programme methodology
- 2.8 Being part of a comprehensive community-based response system

3 AN INTRODUCTION TO COUNSELLOR TRAINING FOR THE MALE COUNSELLING PROGRAMME

- 3.1 Overview of the male counselling training programme
- 3.2 Counsellor training curriculum overview
- 3.3 Ground rules
- 3.4 Counsellor training schedule
- 3.5 Using this manual: The Counsellor Workbook
- 3.6 The matrix of overall and specific learning objectives

4 COUNSELLOR SCREENING AND SELECTION

- 4.1 Prerequisite counselling skills
- 4.2 Criteria for selection of training participants

5 COUNSELLING INTERVENTION STRATEGY

- 5.1 Counselling Fundamentals
 - 5.1.1 Goals and objectives of counselling
 - 5.1.2 Understanding the stages of change
 - 5.1.3 Using an incentive encouraging approach through the stages of change
 - 5.1.4 Using positive and negative motivation
 - 5.1.5 Compassionate confrontation
 - 5.1.6 Men's identity development
 - 5.1.7 Counsellor attitude and roles
- 5.2 Understanding Men who abuse Woman
 - 5.2.1 Responsibility
 - 5.2.2 Social conditioning
 - 5.2.3 Painful traumatic experiences
 - 5.2.4 Complexes
 - 5.2.5 Projection
 - 5.2.6 Attachment and dependency
 - 5.2.7 Fear and anger
 - 5.2.8 Perceptions of power
 - 5.2.9 Healing and self-love
 - 5.2.10 Characteristics of perpetrators, partners and children in domestic violence
 - 5.2.11 Strategies applied by perpetrators to maintain dominance and control

- 5.3 Counselling Techniques to Enable Change
 - 5.3.1 Counselling communication techniques
 - 5.3.2 Insight techniques
 - 5.3.3 Build-up techniques
 - 5.3.4 Discipline techniques
 - 5.3.5 Action techniques
 - 5.3.6 Client coping techniques
- 5.4 Stages of Change Model
- 5.5 Key principles for working with male clients who commit Intimate Partner Violence
- 5.6 Partner contact
- 5.7 Structure of counselling session
- 5.8 Understanding South African men

6 THE COUNSELLING PROCESS – TOPICS FOR SESSIONS 1 TO 12

- 6.1 Session 1 – Assessment (Preparation)
 - 6.1.1 Introduction
 - 6.1.2 Assessment criteria and process
 - 6.1.3 Preparation
 - 6.1.4 Environment
 - 6.1.5 Referral process
- 6.2 Session 2 – Domestic/Intimate Partner Violence
- 6.3 Session 3 – Anger/stress management
- 6.4 Session 4 – Communication
- 6.5 Session 5 – Self-esteem
- 6.6 Session 6 – Intimate partnership/relationship
- 6.7 Session 7 – Engaged fatherhood
- 6.8 Session 8 – Sexuality and Intimate Partner Violence
- 6.9 Session 9 – Culture and religion
- 6.10 Session 10 – Gender and rights
- 6.11 Session 11 – Substance abuse (alcohol and drugs)
- 6.12 Session 12 – Looking Forward: Evaluation and Support

7 MANAGEMENT AND SUPPORT SERVICES FOR COUNSELLORS

- 7.1 Introduction
- 7.2 Debriefing and supervision
- 7.3 Recognising signs of counsellor burn-out
- 7.4 Self-management technique for counsellors

8 MONITORING AND EVALUATION TOOLS

- 8.1 Introduction
- 8.2 Forms used before counselling begins
- 8.3 Forms used for Topic 1: Assessment
- 8.4 Forms used during Counselling Topics 2-11
- 8.5 Monitoring and Evaluation Forms used throughout the counselling process
- 8.6 Form used on completion of the counsellor training

FORMS ON DISC
GLOSSARY
BIBLIOGRAPHY