1.0 What is the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region?

The International Conference on the Great Lakes Region (ICGLR) is composed of twelve (12) core Member States, namely:

- Republic of Angola
- Republic of Congo
- Republic of Rwanda
- United Republic of Tanzania
- Republic of Burundi
- Democratic Republic of Congo
- Republic of South Sudan
- Republic of Uganda
- Central African Republic
- Republic of Kenya
- Republic of Sudan
- Republic of Zambia

The ICGLR was established by The Pact on Security, Stability and Development of the Great Lakes Region in 2006 (ICGLR Pact, 2006).

The objective of establishing the ICGLR was to, inter alia, “create conditions for security, stability, and sustainable development between Member States.”

ICGLR Member States undertook to combat sexual violence...through preventing, criminalizing and punishing acts of sexual violence, both in times of peace and in times of war, in accordance with national laws and international criminal law. Article 11 ICGLR Pact, 2006.

2.0 What is the ICGLR - Regional Training Facility?

The ICGLR-RTF is “a special regional facility for training and sensitizing judicial officers, police units, social workers, medical officers and other categories of persons who handle cases of sexual violence in the Great Lakes Region.” Article 6(9) ICGLR Protocol on the Prevention and Suppression of Sexual Violence Against Women and Children, 2006.

The ICGLR-RTF commenced its operations in 2014, and is located in Kampala, Uganda.

3.0 What is the Strategic Direction of ICGLR-RTF?

In order to ensure implementation of the ICGLR Pact, the ICGLR set up a Regional Follow-up Mechanism which consists of –

- The Summit of Heads of State and Government,
- The Regional Inter-Ministerial Committee,
- The Conference Secretariat,
- The National Coordination Mechanisms, and
- The Collaborative Mechanisms and other specific structures or forums.

The ICGLR-RTF is a decentralized institution/structure of the ICGLR, a regional response to sexual violence that implements the ICGLR Pact in its operations.

The ICGLR-RTF is headed by a Regional Director, operates under the Conference Secretariat - which is the technical arm and coordinating body of the ICGLR.

4.0 What are key achievements of ICGLR-Regional Training Facility?

4.1 Training and Sensitization

- 1) Conducted Training Needs Assessment, Formative Research and Developed Training Materials based on the Socio-Ecological Model; and an Integrated Model which encompasses the medical, psychosocial, legal, and socio-economic approach for prevention and response to SGBV;
- 2) Digitalized the Integrated Model, which has been used to train over 250 professionals who handle cases of SGBV;
- 3) Conducted an impact assessment on utilization of Integrated Model – which revealed concrete impact in ICGLR Member States, for example –
  - Affiliated Trainers and Experts in all ICGLR Member States strengthened operationalization of a referral network – where professionals and other categories of persons who handle cases of SGBV increased collaboration;
  - Institutional development where ICT equipment and furniture was provided to a Resource Centre; and a model victim friendly space were provided by the Netherlands Government to the Uganda Police Force Senior Command and Staff College, Bwebajja, and the Judicial Training Institute;
  - Information on prevention and response to SGBV has been cascaded via its inclusion in the curricula of Training Institutions of the Police, Judiciary, Prisons Services in several ICGLR Member States;
  - In Zambia, Traditional Leaders adopted the integrated model and are currently utilizing it in settlement of disputes and disseminating information via different fora where they preside.
  - Translation of the Integrated Model on prevention and response to SGBV into the local language for ease of transmission of information in Rwanda.
  - Increase in conviction rates of SGBV cases from 20% to more than 70% in Uganda; and reduction of SGBV cases in several Member States as a result of joint training of criminal justice actors, advocacy for the establishment of special courts, and Recovery Centers that are user friendly, particularly to women, youth, children, Persons with Disabilities and men.
  - Based on success registered, ICGLR-RTF is part of the team implementing a GIZ supported Project entitled “Strengthening the prevention and response to SGBV through mainstreaming Mental Health and Psychosocial Support Services (MHPSS) and Peace Building in the Great Lakes Region” of 2022-2025.
